Entrants who fail to correctly select a horse that finishes no worse than third or fail to make a selection before the deadline of any race day are eliminated from the contest.

In the event an entrant's selection is a late scratch or declared a non-starter for pari-mutuel wagering purposes, the entrant will receive the actual betting favorite in that respective race.

After the horses are drawn by the racing office, any fields that have six (6) horses or less, will be excluded from the Selections. Therefore, entrants will be unable to make selections on these races. This does not include scratches made after the drawing.
